Safety Procedures for Attending Mass in the Church

1. One-Way pedestrian traffic within the church is an essential element of maintaining social distancing. Please remember to leave the church at the end of mass through the side doors at the front of the church only.
2. When entering the church, you are asked to use the hand sanitizer and to take a wipe to clean the pew where you will sit. Please remember to take everything with you when you leave, including the wipe.
3. COVID restrictions are now being relaxed and masks are now optional, but all other safety protocols remain in effect. Please remember to maintain social distancing at all times. When distancing is not possible, masks are to be worn.
4. Pray for healthcare workers and all those whose job it is to continue to protect us from this virus.

Practicing these safety procedures is practicing Charity!

Prayer for survivors of residential schools

O God, we praise and thank You for the blessings of life in Canada, from your natural bounty and from the work of human hands. We ask you to open our ears to the truths about our collective history shared with the Truth and Reconciliation Commission by survivors of residential schools. We ask you to open our minds to the complex and subtle ways that past mistakes, arrogance, misuse of authority, and sinfulness have damaged our social fabric in ways we have barely begun to redress. We ask you to open our hearts that we may continue to listen even when the truth challenges us; that we may understand that we are heirs to a system that has shown itself capable of domination and cruelty, whether or not we personally contributed; that we may commit ourselves in all humility to do what we can and support the efforts of others to restore our ruptured social fabric. Amen.

MARY: MODEL OF VIRTUES

CATHOLIC PREACHING |

Pope John Paul II tells us in his beautiful exhortation on the Mother of the Redeemer that Mary is the guide for us on our pilgrimage of faith home.

He says that she “helps all her children, wherever they may be and whatever their condition, to find in Christ the path to the Father’s House.”

She does this by serving for us as a “model of the virtues” which allow us, whenever we raise our eyes to her, to learn the path to grow in holiness through conquering sin. She shows us, as she showed the first apostles, how to pray. She trains us, as she trained them, to receive and respond to the overshadowing of the Holy Spirit. She demonstrates for us how to welcome the Son of God within us and to do whatever he tells us. She “mirrors within her,” Pope John Paul II says, the “central truths of the faith and the mighty works of God.” But she’s more than a model, she’s also an intercessor. In heaven, she imitates her Son for whom to reign is to serve. She serves us by her prayer, by her interceding for us for what we need, just like she interceded for the young couple in Cana before they even knew what they needed. She guides us on our pilgrimage not merely from afar, in other words, but right next to us, helping us in whatever ways we need it.

This is because the pilgrimage that each of us is called to walk in, and all of us are called to walk together, is not an easy or safe one. The first reading today focuses on the dragon, symbolizing the devil, who is constantly warring against the woman and against her offspring, which means not just Jesus but us.
