World Mission Sunday 2018: Thank you very much for your generous contribution to last week's World Mission Sunday collection. This support is a blessing for the Bishops, the Priests, the Sisters, the Brothers and the lay catechists who depend on this help from the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Please continue to pray for those who serve in mission countries so that they may remain steadfast in their vocation to bring Christ's message of love to those they serve.

Remembering Our Holy Dead: In the month of November, we celebrate the Feasts of All Saints (Nov. 1) and All Souls (Nov. 2). It is a time to reflect on the fullness of the Communion of the Saints and pray for all of the departed of our family and friends. Envelopes for intentions are available in the foyer

October – the Month of the Missions: During October, Pope Francis reminds us that "Every man and woman is a mission; that is the reason for our life on this earth." (Evangelii Gaudium, 273). Read about four great missionaries whose stories relate to the youth: Saint Marguerite Bourgeoys, Blessed Catherine of Saint-Augustine, Saint Kateri Tekakwitha (Second Patroness of the Missionary Church), and Venerable Delia Tetreault. In order to seize the importance of the missionary month, we are invited to consult Pope Francis' message delivered in June 2018. We are reminded that the Pontifical Mission Societies are the Works of the Pope, the Bishops and all the people of God.

"Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, as a fragrant offering to God."

Ephesians 5.2

Stewardship Reflection

"And Jesus said to him, 'Go your way, your faith has made you well.' And immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way." (Mark 10:52)

Faith is believing in something even though you may not be able to see it. Many people think that miracles don't happen anymore. But, if you focus on the positive, not the negative, focus on your blessings instead of your hardships, miracles will seem common and you will see God's active presence in your daily life.

All Saints' Day is a solemn holy day of the Catholic Church celebrated annually on November 1. The day is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven. It should not be confused with All Souls' Day, which is observed on November 2, and is dedicated to those who have died and not yet reached heaven.

Although millions, or even billions of people may already be saints, All Saints' Day observances tend to focus on known saints --that is those recognized in the canon of the saints by the Catholic Church.

All Saints' Day was formally started by Pope Boniface IV, who consecrated the Pantheon at Rome to the Virgin Mary and all the Martyrs on May 13 in 609 AD. Boniface IV also established All Souls' Day, which follows All Saints.
